30 Two of the Candidates rejected by the Medical Board wish to know the reasons for their rejection. There is no obligation on the part of Govt. to acquaint them with these reasons. Nor is it desirable to do so, for it is possible that they may challenge the correctness of the view of the Medical Board on the strength of opinion obtained from private practitioners and there may consequently be unnecessary and useless correspondence.

If any Candidate who really desires to know what is wrong with him, he can go to a competent medical man and find it out, if he does not know it already.
